FALSEHOOD EXPOSED.

Of all the falsehoods the Radical papers are circulating concerning Mr. Greeley we found one in the Sacramento Union of the 28th of September, which is fairly entitled to take the premium for entire lack of truth. The Union writes as follows:

The late speech of Horace Greeley at Pittsburg has attracted much attention in the East and principally for the reason that it contained a most remarkable confession of present principles, which leaves no doubt as to his political position. The words used by him should be published by every journal in the United States which has any regard for the Union or the cherished institutions of the country. The following is an extract from Greeley's speech: "Fellow citizens! I demand that there shall be open, free discussion before the Southern people. If after an honest, untried, untried vote they prove that the people of the South say they want disunion, I will consent to it." Here is a bold and unblushing declaration from this vain and persistent office-seeker that the Union is nothing but a partnership at will of independent States, liable to be discovered and destroyed on the mere fancy of a minority, a doctrine which was long ago upset by Webster in his famous speech on Foot's resolution and thoroughly killed, as has been supposed, by the surrender of Lee at Appomattox. Can conscientious, Union-loving Republicans or Democrats support such a man after this public avowal?

In reply to this, we say that Union-loving Republicans and Democrats can and will support and elect just such a man, for the simple reason that he did not in his speech at Pittsburg make use of any such expression, and for proof we refer to Mr. Greeley's own words uttered at Cincinnati on the 20th of September, one day after the date it is alleged that he made use of the remark in question. At Cincinnati Mr. Greeley spoke as follows:

He had, however, been attacked since coming here for the remarks made in his speech at Pittsburg last evening, which he considered had been unfairly interpreted and misrepresented, and he would trust to the hospitality and generosity of his entertainers to permit him to repel the charge. The remark he referred to was as to what he had said in explanation of the circumstances under which he was impelled in the winter of 1860-61, to offer in good faith to submit the whole question of union or disunion to the fair and untried vote of the Southern people. He believed then as now that if such a vote could have been had the Southern people would have voted against disunion, and this was what he stated at Pittsburg. The remark has been perverted into an expression of his present belief and present conviction that any State has the right to secede from this Union at its own good pleasure. He utterly repudiated and condemned that doctrine.

This explanation, so full and satisfactory, was published in the telegraphic intelligence of the Union of the 21st of September. In spite of this, and knowing the utter falsity of the charge, the Union on the 28th ult., gravely repeats it, after publishing a complete refutation a few days before. Such a proceeding on the part of a widely circulated journal can only be attributed to the venomous spite and malice felt and expressed towards Mr. Greeley by all the Grant organs.

GEORGIA ELECTION.—Contrary to general expectation the State of Georgia held an election on Wednesday last. For the purpose of comparison, we publish a statement of the vote of Georgia at previous elections:

	Dem.	Rep.	Majority
1868—Governor.....	76,356	83,927	7,571
1868—President.....	104,707	27,189	44,608
1870—Congress.....	96,685	69,882	26,803

Telegraphic information is to the effect that the Democrats carried the State by an increased majority over that of 1870, and perhaps even greater than that of 1868. The following special dispatch on this subject was received yesterday from our enthusiastic Democratic friend S. A. Kenner, dated Salt Lake, October 3, 2 p. m.:

Latest dispatches from the Georgia election yesterday show it to have been a great Democratic victory. Returns so far received indicate that the Democrats have the State by not less than 50,000 majority. Hallelujah!

KENNER.

The California State Fair closed at Sacramento Sept. 28th, with a grand trotting race for $10,000, won in three straight heats by "Goldsmith Maid," time, 2:20; 2:17½; 2:23½. Governor Stanford's famous horse "Occident" trotted between heats, best time 2:21½, making the third heat in 2:23½; conceded to be the fastest time ever made to wagon. The attendance was not as large as anticipated. "Goldsmith Maid" and "Lucy" will trot October 5, at Alameda, for $7,500.

Mitchell was elected U. S. Senator from Oregon upon the first ballot, Sept. 28. He received 41 votes, Corbett 12, Prim 14. Webster went over to Mitchell, and Corbett withdrew. He had been nominated by the Democrats.

SPECIAL TO THE POCHE DAILY RECORD

PACIFIC COAST.

San Francisco, Oct. 2.—Col. H. C. Clarkson had an altercation with Mr. DeYoung of the Chronicle this afternoon about something that had appeared in that paper. Nobody hurt.

A scandalous rumor that Judge Curtis has married Mrs. Fair is without any foundation.

Watsonville, Cal., Oct. 2.—James D. Ordish attempted to commit suicide last evening by cutting an artery in his arm, but failed in the attempt. Pecuniary troubles are alleged as the reason for the act, rendering him temporarily insane. He says he was robbed of $20,000 while on his way here.

Jerome Downing, while going home last evening, was stopped on Rodriguez street by two men who went through and relieved him of $8—all the change he happened to have.

San Francisco, Oct. 3.—Thos. Palmer, a cook on a schooner, was choked to death while eating supper last night.

Dr. Woodcraft, of the steamer China, reports that the fire in Hongkong, Aug. 22, destroyed the most valuable collection of arts ever known in China.

A letter from Yokohama says the cause of the destruction of the mail steamer America by fire has been thoroughly investigated before the U. S. Consul, assisted by the Minister and senior naval officer, and the conclusion arrived at that the fire was not accidental but intentional. The inducement may have arisen from antipathy towards the company or some of its officers, or from the fact that the Chinese passengers were so generally supplied with large sums of money. This may have become known on shore and induced some wretch to fire the ship for the sake of an opportunity of robbing these people during the conflagration. Two cargo boats that had been left alongside, when the fire broke out were put in charge of the Japanese by their officers, who boarded the ship to help extinguish the fire. These boats the Japanese sailors, in a cowardly manner, sent adrift, lending no hand towards rescuing either the Chinese or their own officers.

Yueno, formerly Commissioner of Customs at Yokohama, has been appointed Japanese Minister resident at Washington, in place of Mori, whose views were too progressive for the Embassy lately sent to America, who until the present change of Government were deadly opposed to foreign encroachments.

Gen. Williams, who promised to contract a loan of $20,000 for the Japanese Government, in order to start a national bank, was forced to go to Europe for it, which has resulted in the Oriental bank dictating to the Government. Mr. Shand manager of the Mercantile Bank here, takes the position of Finance Minister, while the position of Superintendent of Customs falls into Mr. Lowden's hands. Thus the English secure themselves against loss and keep the revenues of the country within their control.

The captain of a Peruvian coolie ship which put in here in distress has been tried by the Japanese Government and found guilty of ill treatment, for cutting off the tails of three Chinese. According to the Japanese law he should have received one hundred lashes, but as he was a Peruvian naval officer the Government allowed him to go free. But as his two hundred coolies went ashore as witnesses by order of the Government, the captain demands the return of his passengers, and trouble appears ahead, in view of which protests have been entered by several of the Consuls.

San Francisco, Oct. 3.—Stocks on the regular list have fallen off in price to the extent of more than $10,000,000 during the last month.

There have been ten divorces granted at Marysville during the last month, and only five marriage licenses issued.

Sacramento is suffering from gangs of burglars, pickpockets and highwaymen.

MAISON, Ga., Oct. 2.—A serious riot occurred at the polls this morning between the whites and the blacks, in which one white man was killed and five or six negroes wounded, two of whom have since died.

Raleigh, Ga., Oct. 2.—An inquest was held to-day on the body of Rev. J. B. Smith, who died suddenly yesterday, and strong evidence of poison was found. No verdict has yet been rendered.

St. Louis, Oct. 2.—Father Burke lectured this evening on "The Little Sisters of the Poor." His escort consisted of nearly all the Irish societies and the city bands, with torches, etc.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 2.—William Dodge has been appointed Indian Agent at Hoopa Valley, Cal.

New York, Oct. 2.—The Convention of Straightout Democrats last evening, at Apollo Hall, elected delegates to the State Convention to be held to-morrow.

A dispatch from Melbourne, dated Sept. 11, says the overland telegraph line is completed.

During the past three months 5,400 emigrants have sailed from Liverpool for America.

Springfield, Oct. 2.—A fire this morning on Court Square damaged the building of Martin Wasson to the amount of $15,000, and Hermann Knapp, furniture dealer, lost $12,000 in stock.

Toledo, O., Oct. 2.—The brig Paragon arrived here to-day and brought James Lowe, a sailor, the only survivor of a crew of eight men of the schooner Rapid, which was capsized in Lake Erie in the gale of Friday night last. Lowe was in the water sixty hours.

Columbus, O., Oct. 2.—The Democratic State Central Committee has issued a circular directing the challenging of the votes of all clerks employed at Washington, and compelling them to show themselves entitled to vote.

New Orleans, Oct. 2.—Charles McCormick was shot and killed Saturday afternoon by John Bennett, a policeman, in the registration office in St. Charles street. The cause of the shooting is unknown.

Buffalo, Oct. 2.—The schooner Fleetwood, just arrived, reports having passed the schooner Rapid on her beam ends ten miles this side of Bordeaux. The captain and crew are supposed to be lost.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 2.—W. H. Moore, chief clerk in the Auditor's office, and E. B. Curtis, chief clerk in the Second Controller's office, left for San Francisco yesterday, to make arrangements for paying the arrears to the Government laborers, workmen and mechanics who were employed between June 5, 1868, and May 19, 1869, at the Navy Yard.

Madrid, Oct. 2.—A dispatch from the town of Escorial, 24 miles northwest of this city, announces that the celebrated monastery Escorial was struck by lightning this evening. The building quickly caught fire, and so rapid was its progress that the dome, tower and edifice were soon consumed. The Royal palace, with its splendid books, paintings, and rare and costly manuscripts, is now in flames. At the date of this dispatch there is apparently little prospect of saving it from destruction. It was the summer residence of Spanish Kings. A brigade of engineers, fully equipped with materials for use in such emergencies, has left Madrid for Escorial.

Columbus, O., Oct. 2.—The Straightout Democratic Convention met here to-day to nominate an Electoral ticket. The attendance was small, and after some consultation it was decided inadvisable to make nominations at present, but to call a Convention for that purpose on the 11th of October.

Wilmington, Del., Oct. 2.—Complete returns from all parts of the State of the election yesterday for Assessor and other local officers give a Democratic majority of 82—a Republican gain on the vote of two years ago for similar officers.

Chicago, Oct. 3.—A Washington special says: The amount of money lost by the defalcation of Major Reese, nephew of Senator Sherman, is stated to be $4,000. Sherman, who is now in California, was telegraphed to-day that his relative was in trouble, and was asked what should be done with him. He responded that the Government should prosecute him.

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 3.—Thirty-four counties heard from give Smith, the Democratic candidate for Governor, 19,631 majority. It is expected that his majority will reach 50,000.

FOREIGN.

Montreal, Ont., Oct. 2.—St. Patrick's Hall, corner McGill and Craig streets, was burned this morning. Loss, about $200,000.

Paris, Oct. 2.—The departures from Alsace and Lorraine of inhabitants who decline to assume German citizenship are upon an immense scale. It is estimated that 88,000 emigrating Alsacians will take up their residence in Nancy alone, while large numbers will go to other places. Within the last fortnight, 18,000 people have left Metz, and the population of that city is now only 10,000.

There is a message at the Western Union Telegraph office for John Quillon.
